

A quiz about the YouTube video on teaching B2 learners using the communicative approach.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mPuqv-tZ1CQ>

1. Multiple Choice: What is the main goal of using the communicative approach with B2 learners?

- a) To teach basic grammar rules
- b) To push fluency, accuracy, and confidence
- c) To focus solely on writing skills
- d) To prepare students for standardized tests

2. True/False: At the B2 level, students should still be mentally translating from their native language to English.

3. Short Answer: Explain the "no more simple answers" approach mentioned in the video. How does this benefit B2 learners?

4. Multiple Choice: Which of the following is NOT mentioned as a strategy for teaching B2 learners?

- a) Demanding complexity in answers
- b) Correcting like a coach
- c) Focusing on grammar drills
- d) Encouraging debates and persuasion

5. True/False: The video suggests that fluency should come before accuracy for B2 learners.

6. Short Answer: How does the video recommend teachers correct B2 students' mistakes? Provide an example.

7. Multiple Choice: What type of activities does the video suggest for building confidence and fluency?

- a) Memorizing vocabulary lists

- b) Writing formal essays
- c) Real-world discussions and debates
- d) Listening to audio recordings

8. True/False: The video recommends using scripted dialogues for B2 learners.

9. Short Answer: Describe one way the video suggests making language practice more spontaneous and real for B2 learners.

10. Multiple Choice: According to the video, what should teachers "demand" from B2 students?

- a) Perfect pronunciation
- b) Memorization of grammar rules
- c) Depth, fluency, and natural communication
- d) Weekly written assignments