

WHY THE COMMUNICATIVE

A 10-question multiple choice quiz about the communicative approach to language teaching, based on the YouTube video content:

1. What is the main goal of the communicative approach in language teaching?
 - a) To perfect grammar rules
 - b) To fill in worksheets correctly
 - c) To enable students to engage in real conversations
 - d) To memorize vocabulary lists

2. According to the video, why do students sometimes struggle in real-life conversations despite completing grammar exercises?
 - a) They haven't memorized enough vocabulary
 - b) The exercises don't prepare them for authentic communication
 - c) They lack confidence in speaking
 - d) Real-life conversations are too complex

3. What does the video suggest as an alternative to writing dialogues?
 - a) Reading dialogues aloud
 - b) Translating dialogues
 - c) Acting out dialogues with a partner
 - d) Analyzing dialogues grammatically

4. How does the communicative approach view mistakes in language learning?
 - a) Mistakes should be avoided at all costs

- b) Mistakes are acceptable as part of the learning process
 - c) Only grammatical mistakes are allowed
 - d) Mistakes should be immediately corrected
5. What is emphasized more in the communicative approach?
- a) Talking and active use of language
 - b) Memorizing rules and vocabulary
 - c) Writing exercises
 - d) Listening to lectures
6. Which of the following activities is suggested as part of the communicative approach?
- a) Filling in grammar worksheets
 - b) Memorizing verb conjugations
 - c) Engaging in debates
 - d) Copying sentences from a textbook
7. How does the video suggest teaching directions in a communicative way?
- a) By using a textbook map
 - b) Through written exercises
 - c) By blindfolding one student and having their partner guide them
 - d) By watching videos about different cities
8. Why is the communicative approach considered suitable for summer school?
- a) It requires less preparation from teachers
 - b) It's fast-paced, interactive, and engaging
 - c) It focuses more on writing skills
 - d) It allows for longer vacation time

9. According to the video, what happens if the communicative approach is not used?

- a) Students become expert grammarians
- b) Classrooms become silent and students get bored
- c) Teachers have more free time
- d) Students learn faster

10. What is the overall message of the video regarding language learning?

- a) Grammar rules are the most important aspect
- b) Silent study is the key to success
- c) Active use of the language leads to better learning
- d) Memorization is the best way to learn a language